

With the ongoing global pandemic, attending college and university will be a completely different experience for many young adults starting the next stage of their lives. This page will encourage and congratulate young adults as they prepare for tertiary education.

Congratulations to Jehan Crowther Boer who is off to John Hopkins University in the fall. Jehan grew up in Lagos and will most likely study public health. JHU is ranked number 1 in the world for this program. Jehan was named after his paternal grandfather (Jan Boer) and Bishop Samuel Ajayi Crowther. He was born Feb 18, 2003 in Michigan and grew up in Lagos.

Here are some photos of upbringing including in Chinguetti, Mauritania and with then Lagos Governor Fashola, with his cousins Jude MI Abaga and Jesse Jagz, with the Aku Uka of Wukari, and with Burna Boy.

Congratulations Jehan, we wish you the best in your future endeavors.
