

S. G. De Graaf, transl. H. Evan Runner and Elisabeth Wichers Runner, Promise & Deliverance, Vols. 1-4, St. Catharines ON Canada: Paideia Press, 1978.

http://reformationalpublishingproject.com/pdf_books/Scanned_Books_PDF/PromiseAndDeliverance_VolumeI.pdf

http://reformationalpublishingproject.com/pdf_books/Scanned_Books_PDF/PromiseAndDeliverance_VolumeII.pdf

http://reformationalpublishingproject.com/pdf_books/Scanned_Books_PDF/PromiseAndDeliverance_VolumeIII.pdf

http://reformationalpublishingproject.com/pdf_books/Scanned_Books_PDF/PromiseAndDeliverance_VolumeIV.pdf

For information about this series go to <https://www.monergism.com/promise-and-deliverance-4-volumes>

Years ago Christianity Today described this series as “a landmark in interpreting the simple stories of the Bible.” This remains a valid assessment. It is no surprise that Prof. H. Evan Runner, a Harvard graduate and a fiery Reformational philosopher, would “stoop down” with his wife Elisabeth to spend their precious time and talents translating a 4-vol. tome meant to serve as an elementary guide for teaching children and thus introduce it to the wider world, as he did Reformational philosophy as a whole. Runner has been my main inspiration; what inspired him, inspires me. Hence, we include this non-academic simple book on this academic website and place it under the Runner section, since he and his wife introduced it to the world.